Portobello Film Festival present the

LONDON FILM MAKERS CONVENTION

Sat 29 & Sun 30 May

11am - 11pm

The Roundhouse

Chalk Farm, London NW1 8EH

Welcome to the London Film Makers Convention a gathering of the most talented, original and dynamic digital film makers and most switched-on and interested film goers on Planet Earth. Entry to all events is free and open to everyone. More than 100 new movies are being screened over two full days and evenings at the best venue in London, The Roundhouse.

Soon your computer will be your TV. The public will no longer be force fed the vomit that the dull corporate establishment monopoly spews out on terrestrial, cable and cinema networks. You'll be able to chose your viewing from the world wide web which will be screening the sort of new and exciting content you'll see here. Picture quality will be higher. You'll even be able to project pictures from the net onto your wall.

All day in the Cafe and evenings in the Cinema are dedicated to nonstop screenings of brand new, mostly short, movies by London film makers.

For films must also be seen in public in the magical public space of the cinema. We hope you enjoy your visit to the 4th London Film Makers Convention.

Afternoons in the Cinema are dedicated to workshops and showcases from the front line of film, exploring the future of the medium in a digital age. Entry open to all, but for free delegate accreditation (giving priority access to workshops and freebies) please ask at the reception desk or email pff@btopenworld.com

Digital cameras and editing now put film making in the pocket of everyone and the internet puts worldwide distribution in reach of everyone these are the themes to be explored by the likes of Julien Temple, Jenny Runacre, Chris Jones (Guerrilla Film Makers Handbook), Courttia Newland, Greg Hall, Teddy Nygh, Nag Vladermerski (London International Animation Festival), and Sasha Damjanovski in the afternoon workshops.

The London Film makers Convention is presented by the Portobello Film Festival. Portobello Film Festival 2010 will from 2-19th September. See www.portobellofilmfestival.com

WORKSHOP HIGHLIGHTS

Sat 29 May

Jenny Runacre 2pm

Jenny has had a varied career in theatre and film working with directors such as John Cassavettes, Pierre Paolo Pasolini, Michelangelo Antonioni, Derek Jarman, and others. She has made her own short films and directed various theatre pieces. Her current acting credits include the John Maybury film, "The Edge of Love" and the recently released "Boogie Woogie". She teaches and lectures on films and the Performing Arts.

Courtia Newland 3pm

Courtia published his first novel, The Scholar, in 1997. Further critically acclaimed work includes Society Within (1999), and Snakeskin (2002). He is co-editor of IC3: The Penguin Book of New Black Writing in Britain (2000) and has short stories featured in many anthologies. His latest books are The Dying Wish, and a collection of stories, Music For the Off-Key (2006). Courtia was shortlisted for the 2007 Dagger in the Library award.

Teddy Nygh 4pm

Teddy's first project as Producer/Director was The Multi Award winning documentary 'Clash of the Tight 1's' - an inside look at hip-hop lifestyle, music and culture in the UK and Australia. Following its success Nygh was commissioned to produce and direct content for US channel BET (Black Entertainment Television). Nygh has also gone on to direct a number of high concept music videos.

Chris Jones 4.30pm

When The Guerilla Film Makers Handbook hit the book shelves, it was an immediate success with Indie film makers and, along with its updates, has inspired over 100,000 new film makers to date. Between writing and making films, Chris teaches new film makers which he characterises as 'a gift'. He lives in Ealing, West London and his business is based at the historic Ealing Film Studios.

In 2009, Chris' short film 'Gone Fishing' was Oscars shortlisted, the film going on to collect over 30 international awards, the process being catalogued and updated regularly on his blog at www.chrisjonesblog.com
